A profile of the Wokingham Borough

Wokingham Borough consists of 17 parishes and towns, each with their own distinctive character.

The borough offers an excellent quality of life, with great job opportunities, top class schools and an attractive local environment. These positive features of the borough not only make it a great place to live but also attract leading edge businesses and highly skilled workers.

Facts and figures
Area: 18,000 hectares (approximately 44,500 acres)
Total electorate: 123,005 (as of May 2, 2017)
Number of households: 65,818 (as of April 1, 2017)

The local economy
The local economy is dominated by the IT, communications and finance sectors. Major international companies, including Oracle, Microsoft and Amec Foster Wheeler as well as parts of Reading University are located within the borough. Businesses are attracted by the good quality environment, high achieving schools, a highly skilled workforce and excellent transport links to London, Heathrow, Gatwick and the motorway networks.

Skills and employment

Education
The borough has a well-qualified resident workforce. 87% of the population is qualified to at least NVQ Level 2 (NOMIS); well above the regional average and higher than any other South East local authority area. Wokingham Borough’s well qualified and educated workforce supports the emerging knowledge economy sector. The area also enjoys similar advantages at NVQ Levels 3 and 4.

The borough’s schools are high achieving, with results regularly placing the local authority among the top in the country in performance tables.

Housing
The long-term plan to provide £350 million worth of new and improved infrastructure and facilities along with more than 10,000 homes in carefully planned major developments is taking shape. Some of the homes have already been built and two new schools (one secondary and one primary) have already opened. During the next few years’ new schools will open along with new roads, shops, sports centres, nature parks and community centres.

The borough offers an excellent quality of life, with great job opportunities, excelling schools and an attractive local environment.
